man Farian. He lived with the Farians, and they cared for him when he became ill. When he was about to be taken to the Hospital, Wiegel handed his bank books to Mr. Farian, saying:

"Here are my bankbooks, the savings of twenty-five years. All the money in the banks belongs to you in case I should die."

Later his relatives in Germany claimed the money. Alfred and Charles Steckler defended Farian's possession through a long and bitter fight, which ends in favor of Farian. There was $10,000 in the banks.

DEMAND OVERDUE WAGES.

Employees of the St. Louis and Sa Francisco Threaten Strike.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 25.-Deferred payment to employees of the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad will cause the Company a lot of trouble unless matters are speedily remedied. Meetings of employees were held Monday at Monet, Mo, and Emporia, Kan., and the first steps taken looking to a strike unless the pay-car arrives shortly.

A committee went to Topeka yesterday afternoon to lay before the officers of the road the ultimatum of paying the Beptember wages on or before Baturday next or seeing the most unanimous walk-out in the history of the road.

They say, though, that this vote, which will result in the unconditional repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act, will not be the final gun in the long fight that has been made for silver.

They assert with more or less of emphasis that before this Congress has adjourned there will be under considera-ona.

The opinion is general at Emporia that strike will result, as it is undertrod that the officials of the road will of meet the demands.
